

Robert D. Jones

Robert D. Jones, CPA, is the Senior Vice President of Treasury Services/Chief Investment Officer for Texas Health Resources.

Texas Health is a faith-based, nonprofit health system that cares for more patients in North Texas than any other provider. With a service area that consists of 16 counties and more than 7 million people, the system is committed to providing quality, coordinated care through its Texas Health Physicians Group and 27 hospital locations under the banners of Texas Health Presbyterian, Texas Health Arlington Memorial, Texas Health Harris Methodist and Texas Health Huguley. Texas Health access points and services, ranging from acute-care hospitals and trauma centers to outpatient facilities and home health and preventive services, provide the full continuum of care for all stages of life. The system has more than 4,000 licensed hospital beds, 6,200 physicians with active staff privileges and more than 25,000 employees.

Mr. Jones came to THR in September 2010 with more than 17 years of experience in healthcare finance with St. Luke's Episcopal Health System in Houston. Mr. Jones also spent 15 years with Tenneco Inc. in a variety of accounting and corporate finance/treasury positions. In his role with THR, Mr. Jones guides the strategic direction of the corporate investment program including over $5 billion in assets, the capital structure of the organization including $1.9 billion in tax-exempt and taxable debt, and general treasury and insurance operations. He chairs the Texas Health Resources Retirement Plan Advisory Group, serves on the Board and Investment Committee of Texas Presbyterian Foundation and on the Investment Advisory Committee for the Dallas Police and Fire Pension Fund. He holds a bachelor's degree in Finance from Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas and is a licensed CPA in the state of Texas.
