

Jamil McNeal

Jamil McNeal, CFA, CAIA is the Director of Investments – Credit and Private Markets at True North Advisors, a Dallas-based wealth management RIA firm. Jamil’s primary responsibility is helping build, execute, and manage the firm’s Western Alternative Strategies (WAS) investment offerings which are designed to provide its clients with access to institutional quality and differentiated alternatives and private investments. He serves as a formal voting member of the Investment Committee and oversees the public credit platform at the firm.

Jamil has worked in the investment industry for over 17 years, gaining experience in Private Debt, Private Equity, Private Real Assets, and Alternative Credit. Prior to working at True North Advisors, he worked at Guidestone Capital Management focused on private market investing within a liability-driven portfolio, at JPMorgan, as an asset pricing manager, and at Wells Fargo as a structured finance bond analyst, pre-GFC. Having committed $100’s of millions, developed operational back office investment processes, and modeled bond deals he brings a unique blend of experience that spans operational, institutional, and wealth management investing that serves as a framework for his practical solution-oriented investment approach.

In addition, Jamil serves on the Board of Directors for Torrey Project, a non-profit dedicated to utilizing the power of business to positively impact diverse communities and the environment as well as participates as an accelerator mentor for founders and entrepreneurs.

Jamil earned a Bachelor of Arts in American Government from the University of Virginia and a Master of Business Administration from the Keller Business School of Management. He is a Certified Financial Advisor (CFA®) charter holder and a member of the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst Association (CAIA®). His hobbies include basketball, reading, and watching movies with his wife and two daughters.